

INSURE IN THE Equitable Life Assurance

Society of the United States.

An Eminently Conservative and Safe Company.

FINANCIAL STRENGTH.

The consideration of first importance in judging of the condition of any financial institution (and notably of a life assurance company, the majority of whose contracts extend over long periods of years) is its surplus strength. The Equitable has, over and above all liabilities, a larger surplus than any other assurance company.

Assets, Dec. 31, 1891, $136,198,518.38
LIABILITIES, including the Reserve on all existing Policies, (4 per cent. Standard) and Special Reserve (toward the establishment of a 3 1/2 per cent. valuation) of $1,500,000 109,905,537.82
Surplus, $ 26,292,980.56

This Surplus remains after making provision for every obligation, on a rigid calculation of Liabilities based on the standard prescribed by the Insurance Law of the State of New York, which assumes that Assets will be invested so as to realize interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum. In addition to this, in a spirit of conservatism, the Directors of the Society, on the recommendation of its Finance Committee, have set aside a Special Additional Reserve, looking towards even a more stringent and conservative future standard of valuation than the law now prescribes.

THE LEGISLATURE.

SEVENTEENTH DAY.

FRIDAY, June 17, 1892.

Morning Session.

Assembly re-convened at 1:35 o'clock, 30 members present, and on coming to order Noble J. M. Horner from the Ways and Means Committee, presented the following report, affecting the Judiciary Department of the Appropriation Bill:

Having satisfied ourselves and by the consent of the Chief Justice we recommend the following items in the Appropriation Bill pass as follows:

Purchase of books for Library, $1000, Appropriation $2000.
Stationery and Incidentals, $1500, Appropriation $2000.
Portuguese Interpreter, $1200, Appropriation $2400.
One District Judge for Kau, $1800.

Strike out items 57 and 58, Appropriation $2100.

Pay of Interpreters of all Courts not otherwise provided for, $2000, Appropriation $2500.

Pay Clerk Honolulu Police Court, $2400, Appropriation $3000.

Printing and Binding 8th volume Hawaiian Reports, $2300, Appropriation $2500.

Signed by all the members of the committee. Laid on table for consideration with the Appropriation Bill.

Rep. Smith offered a resolution that $2,000 be appropriated for courthouse at Koloa, Kauai. Also that $1,000 be appropriated for repairs to the Pali road at Kalaheau, Kauai. To Committee on Public Lands.

Rep. Kamaooha read first time a bill to create Kawaihine, Hawaii, a port of entry.

Noble Marsden read for the first time a bill to license the sale of beer and light wines.

At 1:40 on motion, the Assembly resolved into Committee of the Whole, Rep. Kauihi in the chair, and proceeded with the consideration of the items in the Appropriation Bill under the head of Judiciary Department, and the following items were passed as here represented:

Salary of District Judge N. Hilo, $800.

Salary of District Judge Puna, $800.

Salary of District Judge West Kau, $1,000.

Salary of District Judge East Kau, $800.

Salary of District Judge North Kona, $800.

Salary of District Judge South Kona, $800.

Salary of District Judge S. Kohala, $1,000.

Salary of District Judge Honouaia, $800.

Salary of District Judge of Hana, $1500.

Salary of District Judge of Kipahulu, $600.

Salary of District Judge of Lanai, $600.

In the discussion of the foregoing item Rep. Ashford asked if a case was ever known to have been tried on that Island. He had not heard of one during his stay in office.

Rep. Smith had some slight remembrance of hearing of a case, some twenty years ago, when he was deputy sheriff of Maui. Believed the cause was turkey stealing.

Noble Thurston said, "honest injin," he believed that there was no need for this item. He knew that formerly the Gibson family owned the whole island and took care of the troubles of the people. He did not think that a policeman even was needed. The item passed as above.

Salary District Judge of Molokai, $1200.

Salary District Judge of Kalawao, struck out.

Salary District Judge of Waianae, $800.

Salary District Judge of Waialua, $800.

Salary District Judge Koolauloa, $800.

Salary District Judge Koolapoko, $1000.

Salary of District Judge of Hanalei, $1000.

Salary of District Judge of Kawaihau, $1000.

Salary of District Judge of Koloa, $1200.

Salary of District Judge of Waimanalo, $1200.

This last item shows an increase of $200 over the amount presented in the Bill. Rep. Akina moved the increase and he was supported by Noble Neumann and Rep. Smith who agreed in the points that the place had grown greatly of late and especially since the establishment of the Makaweli plantation thereat. The vote was 31 to 11, Ministers Wide-mann and Whiting voting in favor.

At 4:05, on motion, the Committee rose and Rep. Kauihi reported the work as above described. Rep. Ashford moved to amend the salary of District Judge of Koloa to read $1000 instead of $1200 as recommended by the Committee.

Noble Thurston favored the amendment. They had got along all right until they had struck Kauai and then there was quite a boom in salaries.

On motion the amendment carried and immediately after the Assembly, at 4:15, adjourned.

Mrs. Chauncey Depew says of her daughters: "One accomplishment that I am anxious to have them acquire is that of reading aloud well. I consider that a very necessary part of a good education, and also that they should enunciate their words clearly and correctly."
